Sharing the U.S. College Experience with the Middle East

Project Title	Sharing the U.S. College Experience with the Middle East
Summary	We are looking for two interns with prior knowledge of the Middle East to produce video and graphic content about student life in the United States. The interns should be comfortable speaking in Arabic, but need not be fluent.
Country	Qatar

Project Description

Public Affairs Doha is looking for two interns who are active on social media and interested in Middle Eastern Affairs, to produce content for our social media platforms, including Facebook, Twitter, Instagram, and Youtube for our Qatari youth audience. Over the course of one academic year, to encompass International Education Week and the 2021 US.-Qatar Year of Culture, interns will produce Arabic and English video and graphic content highlighting student life in the United States, drawing on in-person and virtual testimonials from students on various U.S. campuses. Interns should possess a good working knowledge of videography and film editing. Photos, video clips, and short descriptions of student life and activities will be featured across our platforms.

Required Skills or Interests

Skill(s)
Cultural diplomacy
Editing and proofreading
Educational design
Graphic design
Storytelling/blogging/vlogging
Videography
•

Additional Information

None

Language Requirements

Language Speaking Proficiency Reading Proficiency Importance

Arabic Native or bilingual proficiency Native or bilingual proficiency Nice to Have